

National Honor Society dialing for scholarships

The Concord Carlisle Scholarship Fund is getting ready to launch its annual Phonathon on Sunday, March 17, continuing on Tuesday, March 19.

Eighty Concord-Carlisle High School students from the National Honor Society will be volunteering, and together will place approximately 3,500 calls to Concord and Carlisle townspeople in order to raise funds.

The CCSF Phonathon raises money to provide need-based scholarships toward post-secondary education for students who live in or have attended school in Concord or Carlisle. The fund has been supporting students for over 45 years, and has awarded over $2 million to over 1000 students toward their post-secondary education expenses.

CCHS students calling during 2012 CCSF Phonathon
COURTESY PHOTO

The Phonathon, in conjunction with the Annual Appeal, is a major source of revenue for the CCSF general fund. New CCSF Phonathon Chair Bee Loprete “thanks the people of Concord and Carlisle in advance for their generosity, and the terrific CC students for their enthusiasm and commitment to a cause that is so relevant to their lives.”

Information about the Concord Carlisle Scholarship Fund, including deadlines for scholarship applications, can be found on the Concord Carlisle Scholarship Fund website, www.ccscholarshipfund.com.